Insurance Information

Buildings Reinstatement Value*:

*This should be the reinstatement cost of the property with considerations including demolition/debris removal, materials, labour, fees and taxes. If you are unsure what value to include we would recommend that you utilise the services of a RICS qualified Buildings Surveyor to obtain this for you.

Building Construction:
(Walls, roof and flooring materials)

Heating Method:
(Appliance and fuel)

The insurance terms will be subject to the following assumptions :

- There have been no claims or losses within the last 5 years, whether insured or not, either made by you or against you
- The property is in a good state of repair, not undergoing renovation, repair or alteration, or anticipated to be undergoing renovation, repair or alteration during the next 12 months
- The property has not suffered from nor shows any visible signs of damage from subsidence, landslip or ground heave
- Any flat felt roofing is under 7 years old or has been professionally inspected in the past 3 years
- There is no known history of flooding at the address
- You have never had any Risk Improvement requirements imposed by the current or previous insurers which have not yet been completed to their satisfaction

If any of the above statements are not true, please provide details in the box below in order that this can be discussed with the underwriters:

You have a duty to make a fair representation of the risk that you wish to insure. This means that you must disclose all relevant information before the insurance contract commences.

This information includes those material circumstances that would influence a prudent insurer on whether to insure the risk (and if so on what terms).

Declarations

The terms are based on the following assumptions.

Please tick all to confirm that you have read and understand the declarations:

- You have never had insurance cancelled, renewal refused or subject to special terms
- You have never been convicted or charged with a criminal offence, or within the last 3 years received an official caution for a criminal offence, other than a motoring offence
- You have never knowingly failed to conform to legislation pertaining to Health and Safety at work activities
- You have never been declared bankrupt or are now subject of any current bankruptcy proceedings or any voluntary or mandatory Insolvency or winding up procedures

If any of the above statements are not true, please provide details in the box below in order that this can be discussed with the underwriters:
