2 Nominations

I understand that under the provision of the Scheme, any payments due on my death are made at the entire discretion of the Scheme Administrator.

However, in the event of my death, it is my wish that the Scheme Administrator considers making the payment of death benefits to, or for the benefit of, the persons detailed below. (This can include charities, trusts and other organisations as well as individuals.)

Name and address	Relationship	% of Benefit
<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
Total		100%

Although the form allows space for three nominations, there is no restriction on the number of people you can nominate. If there are more than three nominations, please provide details on a separate sheet.

Please make sure the proportions add up to 100%.

If you wish to choose a person(s) whom you would like to benefit only if your other proposed recipients have died before you, please explain this. (For example: wife 100%, or if she dies before you, parents 50% each).

If you wish any payments to a proposed recipient(s) to be conditional on them surviving you by a relatively short period of time, for example for tax reasons, please explain this and give the name of the other recipients to take their place.

On my death, I wish the scheme administrator to pay any benefits from my SIPP to the beneficiary(ies), in the proportion set out above. I accept that this is only an expression of my wishes. I understand that whilst the scheme administrator will pay due consideration to those wishes, they have absolute discretion as to the beneficiary(ies) and to the proportion of benefits paid to each beneficiary unless otherwise provided by law.

I understand that if the Scheme Administrator chooses a beneficiary who has not been named above, the definitions of "nominee" and "successor" under tax legislation may mean that drawdown income cannot be offered to that beneficiary. Therefore in addition to the individuals listed, in order to allow the trustees to pay drawdown income to as wide a range of beneficiaries as possible and for the purposes of the relevant tax legislation, I nominate any individual who is eligible to receive a lump sum on my death under the rules of the scheme.
